Supplies Needed: The Mystery of History Volume IV Modern History, 1" 3 ring binder, Pencil

Course Overview:

In The Mystery of History Volume IV Modern History, we will start the year with Composers and Wars of Independence in 1708 and end the year with the Global War on Terror 2001-14. Each family will need one student reader. Families have the opportunity to read the text together or older students can read on their own. We will do review questions, activities, map, and timeline work in class then I will give an overview of the weeks reading. Students are expected to read 3 lessons each week; I will provide suggestions for other optional readings of source documents.

Rebekah and I appreciate the author's strong Gospel message throughout the text. She presents the Gospel and historical content well respecting and loving our students as she writes to us.

"I became a minister according to the stewardship from

*God that was given to me for you,
to make the word of God fully known,*

the mystery hidden for ages and generations

but now revealed to his saints.

To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery,

which is Christ in you, the hope of glory."

Colossians 1:25-27
